Story so far

Gring and his friends visited the market to find the clue of Mizuneko, the Water-Cat who had been abducted by the monster.

There they came to know that the clue lies with the Monster Lab. While they were looking for the Lab, they met a merchant who advised them to ask the East Witch about it.

Gring and his friends set out again to see the East Witch.

I smell something.

Sniff, Sniff

Huh?

You can read the previous issues of this comic on the website of the Asahi Glass Foundation. (You can find the URL on the final page).

Sniff, Sniff

It's a witch.

Oh

I've seen it before....

I know!

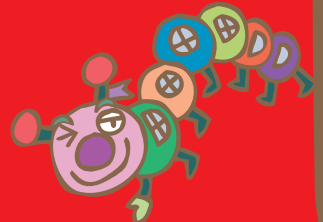

WANTED

REWARD
80.000

That's the panda on the wanted list in the Kingdom!
*The eighth issue

It was on the Fairy Bus, too.
*The sixth issue

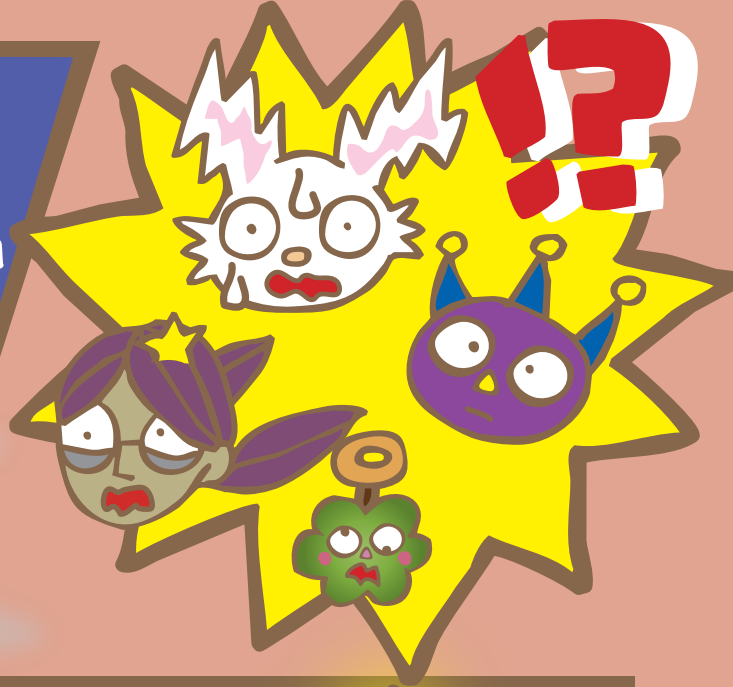

Ta-da!

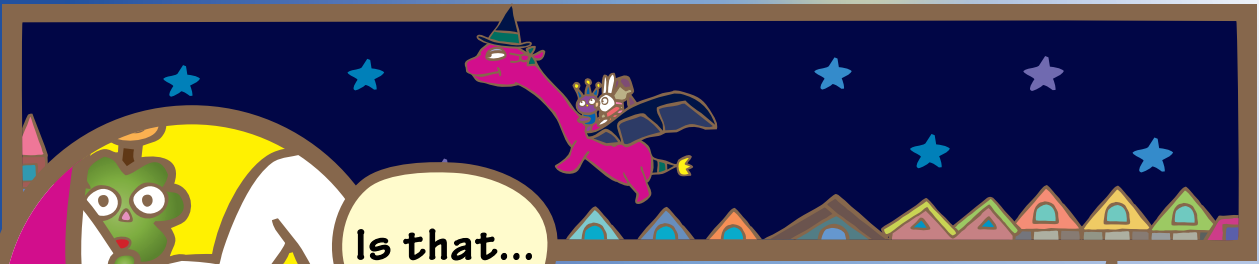

The panda turned into a witch.

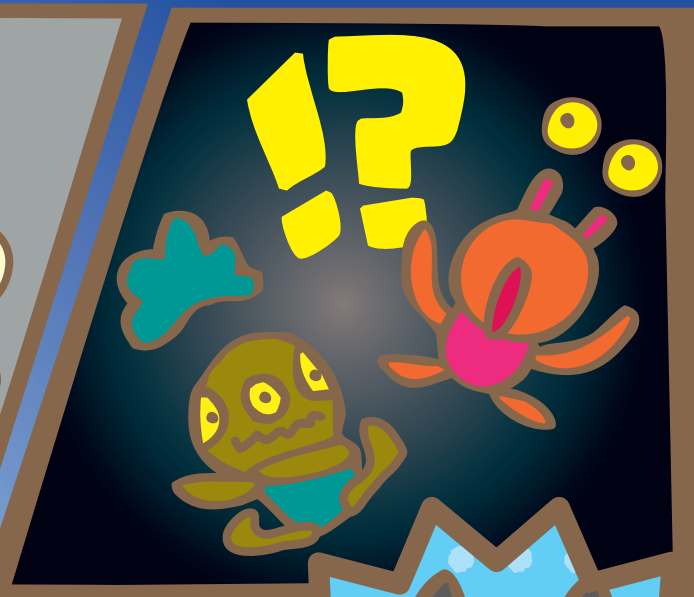

Let's go!

Is that...

Mizuneko, the Water-Cat!!

Pit-a-pat

pit-a-pat

Look!

BOOM

Dirty water coming out of the Lab is polluting the river!

Look! A monster!

Throwing away

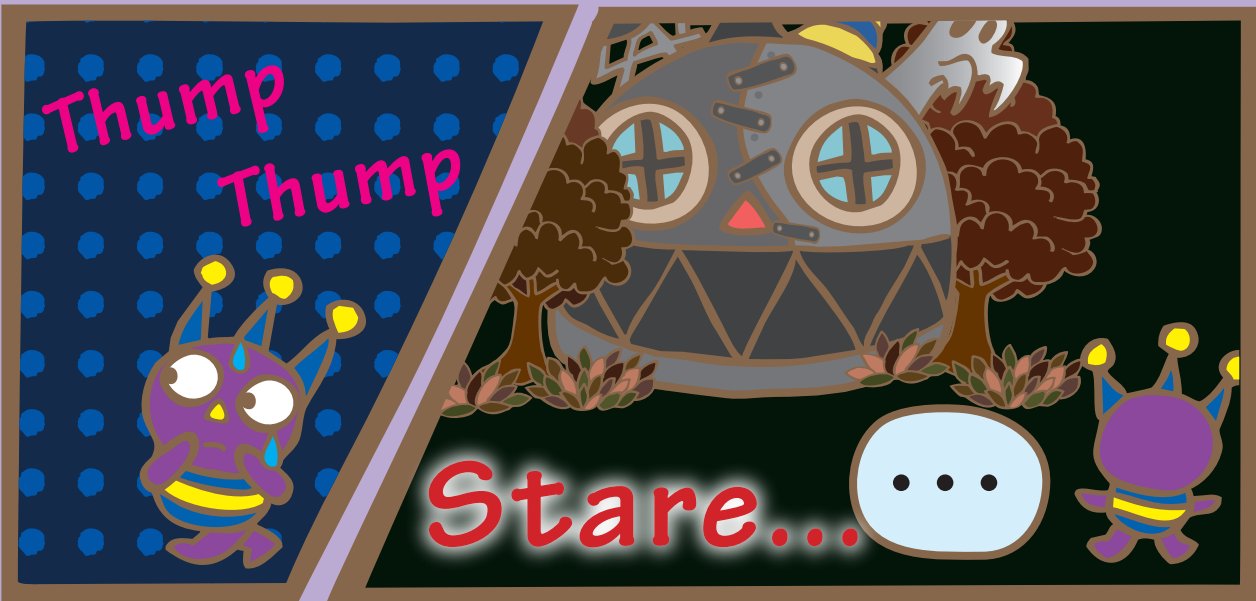

He's littering garbage away!

You resemble him!

Go! Probably they will let you in.

And the cause of the defects is water!
The water in this Kingdom is filthy.

I saw dirty water flowing out of the Lab.

And the monster was littering.

I remember that we discussed river pollution with the Kappappa People, the water spirit!

*Kappappa appeared in the third issue

Where are the polluters?
Find them!!

That's right! It is important to pick up the garbage to clean the river!

We also talked about it with Kawajii, the old river elf!

It seems we have the pollution in our body, which makes us feel under the weather.

*Kawajii appeared in the fourth issue

The color of my body changed because of the polluted water

Woodin used to be in fine shape

You know what? I saw the people in the Kingdom leaving the water running.

Splash

*In the tenth issue

Oh, dear... I have to teach them to cherish water.

Let us stop them from going further then!

Their adventure in Water Kingdom reaches its climax!

Gring and Woodin's Environmental Doomsday Clock
